Father Patrick

“Lord, do you not Care?!” These words of Marth are truly an honest prayer. Following our Gospel from last weekend where we are given guidance from the Lord on how we are to live through the parable of the good Samaritan we are given more guidance not necessarily on what we are to do but more of the attitude we are to have when doing it. How tempting is it to go about the work of our days without remembering the very important truth, God cares!

As we celebrate the life of Fr. Casimir this weekend on the 50th anniversary of the day that he was buried his words speak volumes to this encounter of Christ by both Martha and Mary. “Make your every action a prayer.” Martha’s action was not wrong, it was her focus. She was worried and anxious because her attitude was that she needed to take care of it because God wasn’t. The invitation from the Lord is to choose the better part. This process of choosing the better part begins by taking time away from the hectic and chaotic world. The more we can take time to focus on the Lord, sitting at His feet the more we can remember the better part, Jesus Christ, not my own motivations and actions.

With this in mind, I am truly grateful for the many ways that we are shown the Gospel in the actions of those around us. As many of you are aware we lost Fr. Dennis Meulemans on July 9th in the early afternoon. As Fr. Dennis’ health declined, I was amazed and grateful for the profound response the many faithful of our communities had in caring for him. Especially over the last days of his life Fr. Dennis was never alone, there was almost always someone who was present throughout his suffering to pray with him and be there for him. This was truly the better part and I can’t thank all who loved Fr. Dennis in those last days and hours. Please note that Fr. Dennis’ funeral will be at 11:00am on Monday, July 21 with a visitation from 9:00am – 11:00am leading up to the funeral. There is also visitation from 4:00pm – 7:00pm with a vigil service the night before on Sunday, July 20. All services will be held at Holy Rosary Catholic Church in Medford, WI.

Finally, I would like to welcome Fray Juan to our 4-Parish Community. Let us pray for his ministry and hope that he will be blessed in his work and that God will bear fruit through the canonization of Fr. Casimir Cypher. A reminder that we are in need of first-hand accounts and second-hand accounts of the stories of Fr. Casimir as a child especially. This information does not have to be anything profound or specific but any information will be helpful. If you do have anything please give the office a call, email, or visit to inform us most importantly of your name and how we can reach out to you in the future. May we continue to choose the better part.

abiding Care Prayer Requests

Pray for an abortion-minded client that was in recently. The nurses are concerned about her comprehension level. Pray God will move in her heart to choose life!

Praise God for a recent breakthrough with a family support client! We asked for prayer for her and God is answering. The change in her is nothing short of miraculous! While there is much work yet for her to do, please pray God will continue what He has started! God has been working in a number of our clients on this side and it's been really encouraging to see what transformation comes from supporting parents!

The word of God
is a light to the mind and a fire to the will.

Religious Education “News You Need to Know”

Passing of Fr. Dennis — Father Dennis Meulemans passed away on Wednesday, July 9. Fr. Dennis was 90 years old. He was the long-term pastor at Holy Rosary from 1985 to 2003. Fr. Dennis worked to preserve and strengthen the school and religious education programs at Holy Rosary. Under his leadership, and with many volunteers and donors, a new school was constructed in 2000-2003. Father Dennis retired from active parish ministry in 2003, but he continued to serve a variety of parishes throughout the Diocese of Superior for several years while living in retirement in Rib Lake, WI.

May God Bless and welcome Fr. Dennis into his loving arms. Thank you, Fr. Dennis, for your years of service to our parish and for building for the future with our new school and social hall.

Holy Rosary School News

Holy Rosary Students' Connections with Friar Casimir Cypher

Students studied his life in Medford and his time as a missionary. We studied his poems, “The Sun” and “Meditation on Nature.” We also studied his art carvings: Sun carving and Bird carving. (Grades 4-6 Holy Rosary 2025)

“I like to work with my hands like Friar Casimir did. His art carvings were very beautiful.”

“We love that Friar Casimir attended Holy Rosary Catholic School like we do now. We feel a great connection to him.”

“I like how Fr. Casimir writes poetry. I write poetry too. He wrote about nature. I love to write about nature and animals.”

“I like that Fr. Casimir wanted peace in our world. I want peace too.”

“I liked how Fr. Casimir loves God and Mass. I love God a lot and Mass.”

“I connect with Fr. Casimir because I have been at Holy Rosary for seven years going on eight. I love to work with my hands. I draw all the time. I do all kinds of art.”

“I connect with Fr Casimir because he grew up on a farm. I live on a farm.”

“I really like how wise Fr. Casimir was.”

“I connect with Fr. Casimir because he and I both were born in Medford, Wisconsin, and we grew up on a farm. I also struggle to learn Spanish like he did.”

“I am like Fr. Casimir because I love being around people. I love helping people like he did.”

“I connect with Fr. Casimir because both our families are part of the Holy Rosary Catholic Church community. I think he was a good person. I really hope he becomes a saint.”

“I really liked Fr. Casimir's carvings. I like to work with my hands too.”

“I love that Fr. Casimir loved to be in nature. His writings about nature were really cool.”

“Both Fr. Casimir and I are fascinated with life. We both like to help people. We both were born in the same month, January.”

“I liked how Fr. Casimir enjoyed writing stories and poems. I read about his sense of humor. I too like to write stories and poems. He was a great priest. Our world is a better place because he lived in it.”

“I love Jesus like Fr. Casimir.”

“I can connect with Fr. Casimir because we both come from a large Catholic family. I enjoy art like he did.”

When studying Fr. Casimir's poem, “The Sun”, students were amazed by this section:

“Be the Sun you were created to be and you too will do all those things that the Sun can't do and you can. You can then, like the Sun, touch the whole world without census or receipt only because you are living your Life. Then when your Life on earth is ended you too will have given enough to the Lives that needed your Life so that it can live on.

He was a profound writer. We were blessed to have the opportunity to study his work and learn about him.

Fr. Casimir pray for us.

Mass — Did You Know?

An article from the Diocese Lincoln:

Q. Is there anything in the rubrics about how long Mass should last? I know people who shop around for shorter Masses.

There are no rubrics that talk about how long Mass should last. There are words in the General Instructions of the Roman Missal (GIRM) which inform us as to how the Mass should be celebrated, e.g., reverently, devoutly, etc. This, to me, indicates that Mass should take as long as necessary.

Each priest brings his own style, approach, and personality to the celebration of the Eucharist. Some are pretty good singers and bring an added dimension to the Mass with their voice. Other priests like to emphasize the eloquence of the spoken word, the effective use of pauses, and silence at the appropriate time. Each of these elements will affect how long Mass will last.

Our consideration of the length of Mass should begin with questions like, "Why do I go to Mass?" "What is the reality and the nature of the Eucharist?" and "What does the Mass mean to me?"

If we put too much emphasis on how long Mass will be, we are certainly there for the wrong reason. That would imply that the Eucharist is simply an obligation that the Church imposes which we quickly check off of our weekend list. I really hope that is not the case for any Catholic.

Rather, after extensive prayer, reading, and reflection, we should truly strive to be missionary disciples who understand and accept that the Eucharist—the Very Body and Blood of Jesus—is our Catholic act of worship. Therefore, it should not matter how long Mass lasts. Even though the priest may not be the most eloquent preacher and the music may not be concert quality, we should realize, nonetheless, that our presence at Mass is to worship our God; we need to be there, regardless of circumstances.

Mass should never be seen as an obligation but, rather, an opportunity.

There will be a Special Collection for the "2025 Texas Flood Relief" on July 19 & 20.
