Father Julian

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, I hope that this weekend is treating you well and that you are enjoying the beautiful weather these days! This is one of my favorite times of the year as the trees begin to turn and the fall festivals bring us together as a community of faith. Thank you to all who are contributing their hard work to these celebrations. They are a great way to bring the community together and build relationships as the body of Christ.

Something that I am still learning about parish life and the priesthood is that you can never predict what is going to happen next. You have to be willing and ready for anything and anyone that the Lord sends your way. The life of the Christian disciple is one that always seeks to surrender to God's plan and divine providence, ready or not. We are at the Lord's beck and call. It's something that is both beautiful and life giving, but also very hectic.

For example, just this past week, a few of our school students were waiting to be picked up from school after classes had finished. One of the students noticed a little fluffy tail sticking out from under a pine tree near the statue of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. She called out to me: "umm, Fr. Julian, I think there's a stray dog over here!" "Uh oh," I thought to myself. As I walked over and peered through the window, I saw a little fur coat with two pointy ears covering the rocks near the statue. "That's not a dog," I said to the kids, "that's a coyote! I guess even Coyote's want a little quiet time with Jesus!" The kids looked at me and laughed. I then turned to one of our teachers to call someone.

Eventually two of our wonderful police officers arrived to check things out. In the meantime, the kids and the teachers wanted to bring him home. After several attempts to get him in a live trap or to spook him off the property, Fr. Patrick came to the rescue and chased him away unscathed. "What could possibly happen next?" I thought to myself.

I'd like to think that this was the Lord's way of reminding us to find refuge in Him when life gets hectic. We all need that time to draw close to the Christ and be with Him in moments of stress. As the Psalmist tells us: "You who dwell in the shelter of the Most High, who abide in the shade of the Almighty, say to the Lord, 'My refuge and fortress, my God in whom I trust.'" I hope that you will find refuge in the Lord this week and spend some quiet time with Him like our little furry visitor.

In Christ, Fr. Julian

Holy Rosary Council of Catholic Women

October is Holy Rosary Council of Catholic Women's membership month. The bulletin insert includes examples of the many ways HRCCW serves Holy Rosary Parish and the larger community. Envelopes for the $5 annual dues are included in this week's bulletin and can be put in the collection basket, dropped off at the parish office or given to Betty Danen. These annual dues help support the many projects listed in the bulletin insert.

HRCCW's next meeting will be October 7th at 6pm in the Social Hall at Holy Rosary Church. Please come join us for this short meeting and fellowship. If you would like to know more about how you can support HRCCW, please contact Ann Dassow (dassowag@hotmail.com or 715-741-2714).

If you have a prayer you would like passed on, please contact Jane Schiszik at 715-748-5240.

Religious Education "News You Need to Know"

Parent First Reconciliation Meeting

There is an important meeting coming up on Wednesday, Oct. 8th, for parents of 2nd grade students in the Holy Rosary Religious Education program and Holy Rosary school. As your child prepares for their First Reconciliation, we need your support at home to help them prepare for the Sacrament. The meeting is at 6:00 pm at Holy Rosary. At least one parent of each student is required to attend.

Youth Group Event

Any youth in 6th-12th grade (ages 11-18) are invited to join the 4-Parish Youth Group for a trip to the Mortician's Haunted Mansion at Spring Lake Campground in Unity on Saturday, Oct. 11th. The cost is $10 per person, and Krug's Bus Service will provide transportation. The bus will pick up youth and chaperones in the Good Shepherd parking lot at 6:00 pm, and then travel to pick up youth and chaperones at the Holy Rosary parking lot at 6:30 pm. The bus will return around 10:00 pm at Holy Rosary, and 10:30 pm at Good Shepherd. Permission forms were shared during religious education, but additional forms are available at the 4-Parish office or email hfilipiak@hrmedford.org. Please return permission slips no later than Oct. 8th to either the 4-Parish office or during religious education classes.

Boxes of Joy

I know it is early October, but we need to start on the Boxes of Joy to ship the boxes, and ensure they arrive to children before Christmas. Holy Rosary, OLPH, Good Shepherd, and Sacred Heart will once again participate in the Boxes of Joy program. Parishes, schools, and groups across the country will be filling boxes of Joy for children in need around the world. The international relief and development ministry, Cross Catholic Outreach, seeks to bring Christmas joy to poverty-stricken children through its Box of Joy program. Thousands of children in poverty-stricken countries will be blessed by these gift boxes. For many of these children, this small shoebox may be the only gift they receive at Christmas. Boxes of Joy will be available in all 4 parishes the weekend of Oct. 11th & 12th. The Boxes need to be returned by Wednesday, Nov. 5th to be shipped out to the distribution centers. Boxes may be returned to any of the 4 parishes where you picked up the box. Please consider filling a box or two to help these children in need.

Leaf Raking

On Saturday, Oct. 25th, the Religious Education students and adult volunteers will be raking leaves for senior citizens from our parish. If you are a senior citizen in the City of Medford and a member of Holy Rosary parish, please call Mike Bub or Michelle Oates at Holy Rosary 715-748-3336 if you would like the students to rake your leaves this year. The City of Medford will be doing its annual leaf pick-up the week of Oct. 27th. Sorry, we can only rake leaves in the City of Medford, as we rake the leaves out in the street for the city to pick up. We need some adults to help the students with the leaf raking. The adults would provide supervision and transportation to the lawns to be raked.

If you have any questions or comments regarding the Religious Education program, please get in touch with me via email at mbub@hrmedford.org or call me at 715-748-3336, ext. 248.

This is Parish Family Weekend!

Take a bit of time this weekend to join your parish family downstairs after Mass. Have a cup of coffee or juice, a light meal, and some wonderful conversation with old, and new, friends. Everyone is welcome!

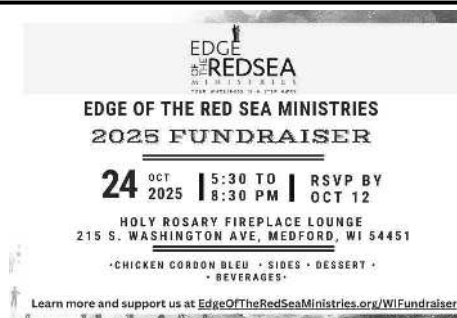

Food Pantry Donations

Recent donations to Indianhead's food pantry were another $50 cash and 45 pounds of food and miscellaneous items. Thank you for your ongoing support of others in our community!

Indianhead's Medford pantry is undergoing organizational changes; the new leadership is especially appreciative of cash donations during the transition. Donations can be put into the collection box in the church entry, or given to Peggy Hraby for delivery.

Reminder to ...

- Sign your family up for a photo session. Sessions for the new pictorial directory are October 14th to November 1st, but you need to reserve a date and time as soon as possible.
- Make your donation and/or pledge to the 2025-2026 Catholic Services Appeal, which funds critical Diocesan programs benefitting every parish. Donate online, or find envelopes in the pew or church entry.

Learn how you can make a difference through prayer, volunteering, hosting a retreat or financial support.

Called North!

When we pray the Diocese of Superior Vocations prayer in our parishes it gives me joy to know that our prayers are being answered. This new year marks the first time in almost 20 years that we have had 7 seminarians in formation for the Diocese. For the next 7 weeks I'd like to take some time to introduce our seminarians to you all and ask that we pray for them as they prepare their hearts to be open to God's will.

We have a saying in our diocese, "Called North". Not only is it our slogan for our vocations ministry for the diocese it is also a question. The Lord is calling us all to follow Him. He is calling young men to be open to the vocation to the priesthood as well. If you or someone you know is open to this call or you'd like to know more and pray for those discerning please visit our vocations website for the Diocese of Superior: www.callednorth.org.

Let us keep our seminarians in prayer and all those who are called to the gift of priesthood. We have included a list of all our seminarians along with their contact info in this bulletin. Please feel free to let them know of your prayers. St. Augustine (patron of the Diocese of Superior) ... Pray for Us
