November 9, 2025 ~ The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

To those who sold doves he said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me. - Jn 2:16-17

Father Patrick

We are almost to the end of an unusual liturgical year of important feasts replacing several Sundays in Ordinary Time. This coming Sunday, the Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica trumps the 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time.

It was easy for people to understand why All Souls outranked last Sunday. But the dedication of a building in Rome? The bulletin column below helps explain why.

Whenever the ninth of November falls on a Sunday, many churchgoers are surprised to learn that the regular Mass has been replaced by one for the Feast of the Dedication of the Basilica of St. John Lateran. Christmas, Easter, even All Souls Day we understand. But John Lateran?

The feast most nearly resembles Independence Day on the national calendar. It celebrates the freedom to worship and the dedication of a place to gather for worship.

Early in the fourth century the persecution of Christians came to a close with the conversion of the emperor Constantine, who granted the followers of Jesus the right to public worship. Constantine offered Pope Sylvester I some property owned by the Lateran family, which became the site of the first Christian basilica—dedicated on Nov. 9, 324.

Over time, the church was placed under the patronage of St. John the Baptist and St. John the Evangelist. The popes lived in a palace adjoining the church which underwent several renovations over the centuries. Several councils were held in the building, including the ones legislating celibacy for priests and communion once a year for the faithful.

Even though the popes moved to Avignon, France for a century and eventually to a residence in the Vatican palace adjacent to St. Peter's Square, the Lateran Basilica remains the cathedral church of Rome. When we speak of the pope as bishop of Rome, this is his cathedral, not St. Peter's. Since the pope is the shepherd of the universal church, the Lateran Basilica of St. John is the cathedral church of the world.

Each year the dedication of this building is celebrated in every Catholic parish in the world on Nov. 9. It proclaims the original freedom of Christians to worship, the dedication of our ancestors to worship, the perseverance of our faith and the universal nature of our community.

By commemorating the dedication of the Basilica of St. John Lateran, we pass on that faith to new generations.

Religious Education "News You Need to Know"

Boxes of Joy

Any last Boxes of Joy must be turned in to the Holy Rosary office by noon on Monday, Nov. 10th. After 12:00 pm on Monday, the 10th, we cannot accept any late boxes. Thank you to everyone who made a difference in a child's life. Your support of the Boxes of Joy was amazing!

Giving Tree

Each year, the Knights of Columbus have had a giving tree to provide an opportunity for members of our parish to help those less fortunate with gifts at Christmas. The Knights collect requests from families in our school, and we also work with the Taylor County Human Services department to gather requests. Help us to provide hope, love and gifts at this special time of the year. Our "Giving Tree" looks more like a poster than a tree. The posters with tags will be located in the front of the church and in the church foyer. Please select some tags to help bring Christmas Joy to families in our community. Gifts need to be returned by Sunday, Dec. 14th. On Sunday, Dec 14th, the Knights will be wrapping the gifts for delivery. The gifts will be delivered on Monday, Dec 15th. Please DO NOT wrap the gifts in advance. The Knights and some great volunteers will wrap the gifts and place the tags needed for delivery

Opportunities for Kids

The first week of Advent is on Sunday, Nov. 30th. Advent is four weeks to help us prepare for the Birth of Jesus on Christmas Day. We have a number of opportunities for the youth of our parishes.

- On the first Sunday of Advent, we will have a booklet for children who come to Mass that weekend. The booklet called "Absolutely Advent" by Pflaum Publishing. The booklet has daily activities for the kids. The book follows the adventure of Levi, a young lamb. The booklet will be available at all four parishes on a first-come basis. We have 225 booklets.
- Reminder, we have a preschool program at the 8:45 am Sunday Mass. The children leave Mass after the opening pray for a lesson about Jesus. The children return to the Mass during the offertory.

OCIA - Order of Christian Initiation of Adults

Do you want to become Catholic or need to complete your Sacraments? Please send an email with name, phone number, and email address to mhub@hrmedford.org. Or call Mike at the 4-parish office at 715-748-3336 ext. 248. OCIA classes will begin on Sunday, Jan. 4th.

If you have any questions or comments regarding the Religious Education program, contact Mike at mhub@hrmedford.org or call me at 715-748-3336, ext. 248.

Thank you,
Mike Bub

Holy Rosary School News

Vision Statement — Holy Rosary Catholic School will be the school of choice for all families of Holy Rosary Parish, as well as, for other families who desire a quality Catholic education that will ensure students begin their life's journey with a strong foundation of faith and knowledge.

Each Student Matters, Every Moment Counts, Christ in the Center

You are all invited to our Veteran's Day program

We had a special visitor at our Mass this week. Friar Juan Alonzo Pagoda Acosta from Costa Rica was here. He is visiting Medford to gather more information to further the canonization of Friar Casimir Michael Cypher. Michael Cypher was a Holy Rosary School graduate.

'This is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad.'

Psalm 118:24

National Vocation Awareness Week is November 2-November 9.

In the Catholic faith, a vocation is a "call" from God to live a life of holiness in a specific way. This universal call to holiness is the primary vocation for all Christians, beginning at Baptism. Beyond this, individuals may discern their specific vocation through a particular life state, which includes married life, single life, the priesthood, and religious life (such as nuns and brothers).

Meet Our Seminarian Jesse Larson

I'm Jesse Larson, a second year seminarian for the diocese of Superior. I am in my junior year at Immaculate Heart of Mary Seminary in Winona, MN. I grew up in the town of Maple about 30 minutes outside of Superior. I had a reversion to the faith during high school and I studied chemical engineering at Michigan Tech University for two years before joining the seminary. I was deeply involved in the University Parish, St. Albert the Great, and it was there that I learned to pray and heard God's call. Now I am studying philosophy and involved in activities at the seminary such as the schola choir and sports. Some of my favorite hobbies are lifting weights, downhill skiing, and mountain biking.

Check out the website
www.callednorth.org to learn more about our seminarians and the discernment process. If you are thinking about priesthood please give
