Father Julian

Praised be Jesus Christ! I hope things are going well for you this week. I wanted to write briefly on the importance of the Eucharist in our lives of faith, especially as we continue to make our 33 day consecration to Jesus in the Eucharist.

Throughout the past several years, CARA statistics have revealed that doubting the true presence of Christ in the Holy Eucharist has become a frightening reality for the Church. Many studies suggest numbers that fall between 20-30% of Catholics that deny the true presence. This reality presents a series of problems that divide our family of faith today, especially when we know the Eucharist to be the source and summit of our faith. However, the greatest expression and manifestation of Christ's sacrifice at Mass inspires us to continue turning to the Eucharist and encouraging others to do so as well. Pope St. John Paul II emphasized this well in his letter Ecclesia De Eucharistia. He states that "the Church draws her life from Christ in the Eucharist; by him she is fed and by him she is enlightened." Without our faith in the Holy Eucharist, the Church loses this vital source of spiritual nourishment that enlightens us and gives us life as Catholics.

The Eucharist not only helps us as individuals who pursue a close relationship with Christ, but Jesus sustains the Church as a community in the Blessed Sacrament. From all walks of life, differences of opinion, and challenges that arrive in our communities of faith, Holy Communion feeds the Church as God's greatest expression of love. By receiving Jesus with openness and faith, we receive God who invites us to heal our divisions and be united more closely to one another.

As men and women who believe in the true presence of Christ, Jesus orients the People of God to love others outside of our parish community. The Eucharist sustains us in our desire to love others and live into a life of communion. When we hear the priest or deacon proclaim "go forth, the mass is ended," we know that the sacrifice that we have just received moves us to live the love of Christ in the world. The language of the liturgy invites us to reach out to others and draw them into His mystical body. Our faith beckons us to respond to this invitation and live the love of Christ that we have just received in the Liturgy. God bless you and I pray that we can all grow closer to Christ through this great 33 day consecration to Jesus in the Eucharist.

Fr. Julian

abiding Care Prayer Requests

Please pray for God to continue to work in the lives of our clients as they wrestle with old habits and thoughts, comfort those suffering a miscarriage, direction and funding for new opportunities that are opening up, and more hearts to open to the Gospel. We are praising God for many good things we are seeing—people open to prayer and taking Bibles, and God's provision through our donors.

Thank You

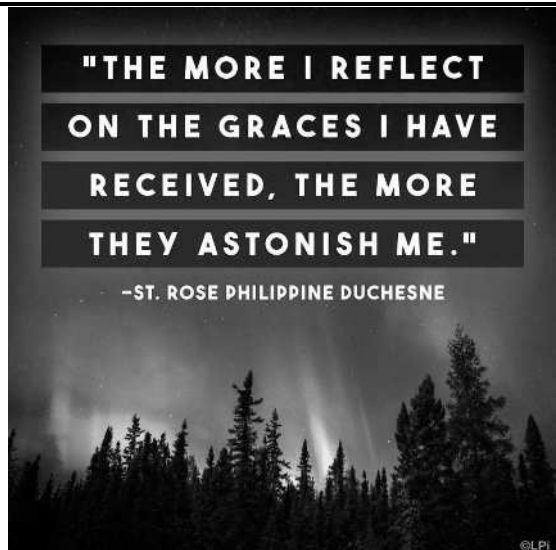

A big thank you to all who contributed and volunteered for our Sucker Campaign to lick Domestic Violence last month at Holy Rosary Church. $360.74 was collected from the weekend of October 18th and 19th. HRCCW added to the collection and a total of $500.00 will be sent to Stepping Stones in Medford. Thank you also to the 4-Parish Community and the students for coming together to help Domestic Violence victims and survivors.

Holy Rosary CCW Christmas Bake Sale

The Holy Rosary Council of Catholic Women will again be holding their annual Christmas Bake Sale on December 6th and December 7th. All parishioners are asked to please donate—baked items, jams and jellies, candy or any other items and/or monetary donations. All donations are very much appreciated! Please have your items to the commons area of Holy Rosary School prior to the sale—doors open at 7:30 am on Saturday for drop off. This is our only fundraiser for the year—proceeds are used to support our many projects throughout the year. Holy Spirits Wine will not be sold this year, but Grandpa Choo-Choo's Kettle Corn will be available for sale both days. Pre-orders are not necessary this year.

Boxes of Joy

Our four parishes returned 160 Boxes of Joy. As we are a drop-off center for other parishes, we packed up 22 cases with 369 Boxes of Joy that were shipped out this week. Thank you to everyone who made a difference in a child's life by filling a Box of Joy.

Giving Tree

The Giving Tree posters are up in Sacred Heart, OLPH, and Holy Rosary. Good Shepherd has their own Christmas project for their community. The Knights collect requests from families in our school, and we also work with the Taylor County Human Services department to gather requests. The posters with the tags are located in the entrances of each parish. Help us to provide hope, love, and gifts at this special time of the year. Please select some tags to help bring Christmas Joy to families in our community. Gifts need to be returned by Sunday, Dec. 14th. Please DO NOT wrap the gifts. On Sunday, Dec. 14th, the Knights will be wrapping the gifts for delivery. The gifts will be delivered on Monday, Dec. 15th.

Advent Starts on Nov 30th

On the first Sunday of Advent, we will have a booklet for children who attend Mass that weekend. The booklet is called "Absolutely Advent" by Pflaum Publishing. The booklet has daily activities for the kids. The book follows the adventure of Levi, a young lamb. The booklet will be available at all four parishes on a first-come basis. We have 225 booklets.

OCIA - Order of Christian Initiation of Adults

I will be sending out the class schedule and registration/information sheet in the coming days. If you contacted me and do not receive the schedule, etc. by Nov. 21st, please contact me so I can follow up. If you have not contacted me, but wish to join the Catholic Faith or complete your sacraments, please contact me for more information. Please email me with your name, phone number, at mhub@hrmedford.org or call the 4-parish office at 715-748-3336 ext. 248. OCIA classes will begin on Sunday, Jan. 4th.

Second Grade Students Reminder.

Parents of 2nd grade Holy Rosary and 2nd grade Religious Education students. Your First Reconciliation is scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 6th, at 10:30 am at Holy Rosary. We will meet in the church. Fr. Patrick will have a short prayer service, then the students will make their First Reconciliation. Parents are also invited to go to Confession that same day.

If you have any questions or comments regarding the Religious Education program, contact Mike at mhub@hrmedford.org or call me at 715-748-3336, ext. 248.

Thank you,
Mike Bub

Saturday November 22, 9am-4pm

Sunday November 23, 8am-12pm

Support the Sacred Heart Council of Catholic Women's largest fundraiser of the year. Plan to do some shopping next weekend, browsing an entire basement of inexpensive holiday items, selecting from a variety of baked goods, and purchasing your chance to win a holiday quilt. Donations of Christmas and winter decorations in good condition can be dropped off in the basement social hall now. Donations of baked goods and similar items are requested, to be packaged and dropped off by 8:30am Saturday, Nov. 22nd. Setup will occur throughout the week of Nov. 16th – Nov. 21st, with takedown completed Nov. 24th. A sign-up sheet is now available in the entry to volunteer.

Eucharistic Adoration has Moved to Wednesdays

Sacred Heart's weekly Adoration has moved from Tuesdays to Wednesdays following the 8:30am Mass and 9:00am Confessions, from 9:30am to 5:00pm. Drop in whenever desired. Additional adorers committed to specific time periods each Wednesday are welcome also; contact Peggy Hruby to get on the schedule.

Food Pantry Donations

Thanks to your donations, we made an extra trip to the Taylor County Food Pantry this month with an additional $90 cash and 44 pounds of food and miscellaneous items. Cash is especially appreciated while the new nonprofit entity is being established; checks can be made payable to MATI. Donations can be put into the collection box in the church entry, or given to Peggy Hruby for delivery.

Meet Our Seminarian Jacob Nollet

Hello, my name is Jacob Nollet and I come from the small farm town of Oulu, WI. I grew up with a big family, 7 siblings in total, 6 of which are sisters. I enjoy astronomy, bird-watching, coding, chess, and beach fires. I first discovered my call during my freshman year of high school and “wrestled with God” about it throughout my high school career. At the end of high school I decided that seminary WAS NOT for me, and I began to pursue computer science at UW-Superior. After a semester, and the continuous “knock” at my heart from the Lord, I found myself dissatisfied with where I was. After praying anxiously for months, one line from St. Faustina’s diary finally pushed me towards actually applying for seminary: (Jesus to St. Faustina) Distrust on the part of souls is tearing at My insides. The distrust of a chosen soul causes Me even greater pain; despite My inexhaustible love for them they do not trust Me. Even My death is not enough for them. I knew then that whenever I was choosing to distrust God’s plan I was proclaiming to Him that “His death was not enough.” I called the vocations director the week after and told him that I wanted to apply for seminary. My journey as a seminarian has been both crazy and crazy beautiful.

Check out the website www.callednorth.org to learn more about our seminarians and the discernment process. If you are thinking about priesthood please give Fr. Patrick a call at 715.218.9812.
