The Baptism of the Lord

Apple ran a commercial not long ago called “Behind the Mac – Greatness.” It shows artists and creators, such as Kendrick Lamar, Billie Eilish, and Lady Gaga, working behind their MacBooks. The narration says, “There’s a certain kind of person who doesn’t wait for greatness. They make it.” It’s a compelling message. There’s beauty in using our gifts with passion and purpose. But there lies a hidden weight in that idea: If you are what you make, what happens when you can’t anymore? When the project fails, the passion fades, or the spotlight moves on, where is greatness then?

Today’s Gospel offers a differing vision of greatness. Jesus steps into the Jordan River. He hasn’t preached, healed, or performed a single miracle. Then the heavens open, and the Father speaks: “You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.” It’s not a reward for success. It’s not earned. Before he does anything “great,” Jesus receives the greatness of his identity from the Father.

And so do you. At your baptism, God said the same thing over you: “You are my beloved.” That is your true identity, not constructed or earned but received. When we see ourselves and others this way, everything changes for the better. We discover a greatness that can never be taken away.

This week, reflect on your baptism: look up the date, thank God for it, pray for those baptized with you, or visit the church where it happened. Let your identity be rooted there.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

Sunday Preschool at Good Shepherd, Jan. 11th

We are starting the same preschool program we have at Holy Rosary, at the 9:30 Mass at Good Shepherd in Rib Lake. The program has been very successful at Holy Rosary. We encourage families to bring their children to the 9:30 Mass. After the opening prayer the priest will invite children who want to learn more about Jesus and stories from the bible to come to the front of the church. The students will then leave for about 20 minutes to learn about the lesson and do an activity related to the lesson. Students will also receive a snack. The program is free. Help pass the word about the preschool class. Students in any grade may attend. Older students can help the younger students with the activity. The classes will be held every week until the end of April.
