Father Patrick

In his letter titled "Disegnare Nuove Mappe Di Speranza" ("Drawing New Maps of Hope"), written in October, 2025, to commemorate the 60th anniversary of the Vatican II document on Catholic Education, Pope Leo spoke to the continued mission of Catholic Education to help young people face the challenges not only of technology but of confusion about the meaning and purpose of life. As we celebrate this Catholic Schools week this week, I find the Pope's words not only challenging but encouraging. In a world that continues to change, Catholic Education is still relevant, and I would argue is more relevant and needed than ever before.

Pope Leo asked Catholic educators and educational institutions to focus on "three priorities":

- 1) "The first regards the interior life: Young people seek depth; they need spaces of silence, discernment and dialogue with their consciences and with God.
- 2) "The second concerns a humane digital culture: We must educate in the wise use of technology and AI, placing the person before the algorithm, and harmonizing technical, emotional, social, spiritual and ecological forms of intelligence.
- 3) "The third concerns peace -- unarmed and disarming: Let us educate in nonviolent language, reconciliation and bridge-building rather than wall-building; may 'Blessed are the peacemakers' -- (Mt 5:9) -- become both the method and the content of learning."

In any case, he said, "no algorithm can replace what makes education truly human: poetry, irony, love, art, imagination, the joy of discovery" and even learning from mistakes "as an opportunity for growth." God knows we have had many opportunities for growth over the years in our Catholic School here at Holy Rosary Catholic Church in Medford, WI and we have grown! I give thanks to God for all who have been a major part of our growth in such an important and needed ministry in our community. Parents, as the Second Vatican Council affirmed, are the first and primary educators of their children, the pope said, but "Christian education is a choral work: no one educates alone." Those who teach in a Catholic institution, he said, "are called to a responsibility that goes beyond the employment contract: their witness is worth as much as their lesson."

And while the human person is at the center of all educational initiatives, the goal is to help that person learn to see beyond him- or herself and "discover the meaning of life, inalienable dignity and responsibility toward others," he wrote. "To educate is an act of hope," and we are so very grateful for the hope that so many help witness in our school from our teachers to our principal to our aids and our staff to our volunteers to our maintenance team to our parents and grandparents to our alumni to our parishioners. It is a "whole community" mission to build up our youth as disciples of the Lord! Blessed Catholic Schools Week everyone!

If you have a prayer you would like passed on, please contact Jane Schiszik at 715-748-5240.

Drop Your Nets and Be Free

There are times I wish I had no obligations. It would be great to take my wife's hand, hop in the car, and drive into the sunset. Where we were going would not matter as much as the fact that we would have nowhere we had to be. There would be nothing we had to do. No bills. No commitments. No problems. Freedom!

Life doesn't work like that, however. When Jesus came along and asked some fishermen to drop their nets and follow him, they did just that. Wow! In some ways, they experienced true freedom. That is what Jesus offers all of us. Yet, true freedom looks quite different than my dream scenario.

In living in the true freedom that Jesus offers, there are things we must do and places we must go. That is because freedom only exists in following God's will, not our own. We are called to be and called to give ourselves completely to God without reservations. We always have the free will to not respond to His call, but we will find that a negative answer may complicate our lives even further. God's path for us calls on us to give freely of what we have been given. Saying no to that call means we carry the weight of those gifts. We were never meant to keep them. The path of God's will may seem long and winding, but it is the one that leads us into that sunset. It is the way to true freedom.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

Blessing of Light

Where you have known darkness, may the light stretch and shine.

Where you have dwelt in shadows, may the sun reach its gentle rays.

Where you have hidden in shame, may you know light-filled redemption, healing, belonging, and rest in Jesus.

Amen.

Religious Education “News You Need to Know”

Religious Education Movie Night

Religious Education Movie night will be held on Wednesday, Feb. 4th. Students in grades 1 – 5 will have their movie at 4:00 pm. Holy Rosary school students are invited to join for the 4:00 pm movie. Students in grades 6 – 11 will have their movie at 6:30 pm. Krug’s Bus Service will be dropping the students in grades 1-5 off at the Broadway Theater instead of Holy Rosary. If not riding the bus, parents should drop their children off by 3:45 pm. The movie will start at 4:00 pm. Parents with students in grades 1 -5 should pick up their children at the Broadway Theatre at 5:45.

- Grades 1 – 5 will see the movie David. David is an animated biblical musical film featuring the character of David from the Book of Samuel in the Old Testament. The movie tells the story of a young Israelite shepherd, poet, and warrior who is predestined to become the new King of Israel. He embarks on a journey from beyond the shadow of an evil Philistine giant named Goliath to prove to his people that true power lies not in a kingship but in faith and freedom.
- Grades 6 -11 will see the movie Soul on Fire. Soul on Fire is a 2025 American biographical drama film about John O’Leary, a real-life St. Louis native who survived fire burns that covered his entire body. A stirring story about a remarkable man, Soul on Fire shines with faith, courage, and the unstoppable spark of the human spirit.

Students coming to the 6:30 pm movie need to arrive early enough to get their snacks and find their seats before the movie starts at 6:30 pm. Students who need to be picked up after the 6:30 pm movie should be picked up by 8:30 pm. Parents are welcome to join us for $10. For $10 you get to watch the movie, receive a small popcorn and small soda.
