A NOTE FROM DEACON PAT

VOICES

People often find themselves caught between two voices. One voice tells them to choose what is comfortable, avoid difficulty, protect themselves, and worry about what others think. The other reminds them that they are called to something greater—to live according to God's truth, even when it requires sacrifice. The difficult part is that the voice of comfort is often louder, while God's call requires us to stop and listen.

This struggle is seen clearly in Jeremiah. He experiences rejection and suffering because he faithfully proclaims God's message. Yet he cannot simply walk away. He describes God's word as a fire burning within him. Even when he wants to remain silent, he cannot ignore God's call. Jeremiah reminds us that following God does not always mean having a comfortable or popular life. Sometimes faith requires us to stand for what is true, good, and beautiful, even when it is difficult. Psalm 63 shows where the strength to do this can be found. The psalmist thirsts for God like dry land thirsts for water. People can sometimes try to satisfy themselves through comfort, success, possessions, or the approval of others, but these things never fully satisfy. Only God can fulfill the deepest desires of the heart. St. Augustine expressed this beautifully when he wrote, "You have made us for yourself, and our hearts are restless until they rest in you."

This restlessness is something everyone can experience. People can spend their lives searching for happiness in the things of this world, only to discover that they still long for something more. Through prayer and especially the Eucharist, we are reminded that what our hearts long for is ultimately found only in God. St. Paul tells us not to conform to the world but to be transformed by the renewal of our minds. Our ordinary lives—our work, relationships, struggles, and sacrifices—can become an offering to God.

In the Gospel, Peter struggles with the same conflict between human thinking and God's plan. He wants Jesus to avoid suffering and the Cross. Jesus reminds him that following Him means taking up his cross and denying himself. Are we like Peter when we want to follow Christ but avoid anything uncomfortable? At the end of the day, each of us must ask which voice we will follow. The voice of the world will always encourage what is easy, comfortable, and safe.

Christ calls His followers to something greater. He asks us to take up our crosses, surrender our lives to Him, and trust that His way leads to true life. The world may offer comfort for a moment, but Christ offers a life that lasts forever.

The choice remains: Will we listen to the voice that makes life easier, or the voice that calls us to become SAINTS?

Have a Blessed week. -Deacon Pat

A Back-To-School Prayer

Loving God, Thank you for the rest and relaxation we enjoyed over the summer. Today, we pray for our children as they begin their new school year. Bless them with joy at seeing friends, excitement at new experiences, and a love of learning. Watch over all who learn, replacing fear with joy, anxiety with peace, and tiredness with energy. Grant teachers wisdom, patience, and joy in serving their students. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen

HOLY ROSARY SCHOOL NEWS

"EACH STUDENT MATTERS, EVERY MOMENT COUNTS, CHRIST IN THE CENTER"

FROM THE DESK OF
MRS. ANA TURINO

As our teachers return for a new school year, we ask our parish community to surround them — and our entire school — with prayer.

Please pray that God grants our teachers wisdom, patience, strength, joy, and grace as they guide, teach, and care for our students.

Pray also for our students, families, staff, and school community: that Christ remains at the center of all we do and that this year is filled with faith, learning, kindness, and love.

"May the Holy Spirit guide our classrooms, bless our teachers, and keep our school united in Christ."

Thank you for praying for our teachers and Holy Rosary Catholic School!

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION "NEWS YOU NEED TO KNOW"

If you have any questions or comments concerning the Religious Education Program, please contact me via email at mbub@hrmedford.org or call me at 715-748-3336 ext. 248. ---Thank you, Michael Bub

Great News about Religious Education Volunteers!

As of this week, we have all the volunteer teachers needed for the Wednesday Rel Ed. classes at both Good Shepherd and Holy Rosary-but we are not done looking for more volunteers!

- We need volunteers for the Sunday Children's Liturgy of the Word program. At both the 9:00 am Mass at Holy Rosary and the 9:45 Mass at Good Shepherd we host a brief class during Mass for younger students. We need volunteers to teach the class each week. In the past, we would have 4 or 5 volunteers, so each teacher did one class a month. We write the lesson for you and provide the treats for each week. Please contact Mike Bub at 715-748-3336 or email me at mbub@hrmedford.org if you would be willing to help.
- On Wednesday's: help with snacks for the middle and high school students at Holy Rosary. For the middle and high school students, we provide a snack before class for them. Due to after-school practices, many of the students do not get a chance to eat before our 6:00 and 7:15pm classes. I'm looking for some volunteers to help prepare the snacks. The snacks range from pizza rolls, nachos and cheese, hot dogs, etc. We do the shopping for you & the snacks are easy to prepare. We would need help preparing, serving the snacks, and cleaning up. Hopefully we can get 2 or 3 people to volunteer so a person wouldn't have to help every week. Please contact Mike Bub to volunteer.

Religious Education Start and Registration

On September 9- there will be a Welcome Back Mass at Holy Rosary at 6:30pm for Grades 5+ for HR & 6+ for GS. Class will start on Wednesday, September 9 only for Grade 12 at HR after Mass. * All classes at HR Grades 1- 11, & GS Grades 1-12 will start on Sept 16. Note: I had an error in the first calendar that was sent out. If you haven't returned your Rel Ed forms, please return registration forms as soon as possible so we can set up classes. If you did not receive registration forms or are new to our program. Please call the 4-Parish Office at 715-748-3336 to request forms.
