A NOTE FROM FR. PATRICK

This Sunday's readings remind us of something we can easily forget: God is good, and He is constantly at work in our lives—even when we do not always recognize it. His blessings are found not only in extraordinary moments, but also in the everyday ways He provides for us, strengthens us, and brings us together as His people.

Last Monday, we celebrated the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. At first, the Cross may seem like the opposite of goodness. It was an instrument of suffering and death. Yet through the Cross, God brought about our salvation. What appeared to be defeat became Christ's victory; what appeared to be death became the path to eternal life.

There is a beautiful connection between the Cross and the life of our parishes. So much of what makes our One Family Catholic Community strong comes through the generosity, sacrifice, and service of ordinary people who quietly give their time and talents. As I look back at our parish festivals, I am filled with gratitude for all who organized, cooked, served, cleaned, donated, and simply showed up. These events are opportunities to celebrate God's goodness and the gift of being part of a Catholic family. That same generosity has made possible another important step for our community.

On Monday, September 14, the purchase of the blue house across Cedar Street from the church was finalized. This property was purchased with funds from a generous donor, with the hope that it may one day provide space for the needs of our parish staff offices. This decision was made after consultation with many church leaders and is once again the fruit of the sacrifice and generosity of our people. We give thanks for this gift and entrust its future use to God's providence.

I am also deeply grateful for the priests who have come from India to serve among us. We have been blessed by the ministry and sacrifice of Fr. Kanna, and we now welcome and give thanks for Fr. Thomas. Their willingness to leave their homes and families to serve the Church here in northern Wisconsin in itself a beautiful gift.

We should also never overlook the tremendous work of our parish and school staff. I am especially grateful for everyone who helps make our Catholic school a place where our children encounter Jesus Christ and grow as His disciples. With 161 students beginning another school year, there is much for which we can give thanks. As we approach the feast of St. Padre Pio on September 23, I am reminded of his simple trust in God's goodness: "Pray, hope, and don't worry." We do not always know what God is doing, but we know the One who holds tomorrow.

As we look around our One Family Catholic Community, there is so much for which we can give thanks. Let us continue to serve one another generously and keep our eyes fixed upon the Cross of Christ—the greatest sign that God's love can transform even suffering and death into new life. May we always recognize the goodness of God in our midst and have the courage to trust Him with whatever He places before us.

Bring the bottles back to church by October 25, so they can be returned to Abiding Care.

This year we are celebrating 15 years of saving, supporting and transforming lives.

Your generous support is deeply appreciated and will help those facing unplanned pregnancies know they are not alone.

Please note, they will provide year-end tax receipts for checks received, but not for cash or change.

HOLY ROSARY SCHOOL NEWS

"EACH STUDENT MATTERS, EVERY MOMENT COUNTS, CHRIST IN THE CENTER"

FROM THE DESK OF
MRS. ANA TURINO

Grandparents are a special gift from God. Through their love, wisdom, stories, and faithful example, they help shape our families and strengthen the faith of each new generation. They remind us of where we come from, teach us the value of family, and often show us what it means to love with patience, generosity, and perseverance. Their prayers and presence are a blessing to their children and grandchildren. Today, we pause with gratitude for all grandparents—those who are near, those who are faraway, and those who have gone before us in faith. May God continue to bless them and keep them close to His heart.

Let us pray:

Lord God almighty, bless our grandparents with long life, happiness, and health.

May they remain constant in Your love and be living signs of Your presence to their children and grandchildren.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen. ❤️

We also warmly invite all grandparents and families to join us for our Grandparents Day Mass on September 24 at 8:30 a.m. We would be blessed to have you celebrate with us as we give thanks to God for the special gift of grandparents in our families and school community of Medford.

A Heartfelt Thank You from the Good Shepherd Blood Drive

Thank you to everyone at Good Shepherd who supported our blood drive on Wednesday, September 2. Together, we collected 13 units of blood, potentially impacting the lives of 39 local patients. For me, this mission will always be deeply personal. I am incredibly proud to represent Versiti because Versiti donors saved my sister Melissa's life twice. When my family desperately needed blood to be there, it was there because strangers we will never be able to thank personally had taken the time to donate.

I will never stop being grateful for those donors or for the mission of Versiti.

But Grant's story and his legacy are about something even bigger: simply getting people to donate blood. Whether you donate with Versiti or another blood provider, please donate. The name on the blood bag matters far less to the patient receiving it than the fact that someone cared enough to fill it. To our donors, Good Shepherd Church, and everyone who helped share and support this drive, thank you from the bottom of my heart. Those 13 units are far more than a collection number. They are life, time, hope, and answered prayers for families who need them.

Versiti will be back at Good Shepherd later this fall, so please watch the bulletin for our next date. We would love to see our returning donors, and hopefully a few first-time donors inspired to give it a try.

Donate somewhere. Donate when you can.

And if you've never donated before, maybe Grant's story can be the reason you try.

With heartfelt gratitude,
Erin Hennes
