A NOTE FROM DEACON PAT

I'm glad you asked.

What in the world is a "saint" anyway, and how can someone who lived centuries ago actually help us today? What does the Church mean when we profess in the Creed, "The Communion of Saints"?

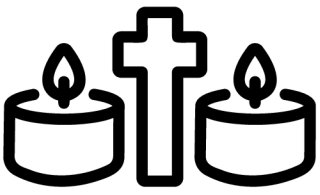

The word "saint" comes from the Latin sanctus, meaning "holy one." In its broadest and most foundational sense, the Church uses the word for everyone united to Christ through baptism. When we think of a "Saint" with a capital S, we usually picture those canonized by the Church—men and women officially recognized whose heroic lives and writings serve as a lasting compass (CCC 2683). Yet baptism makes all of us sancti—holy ones set apart by grace. Whether on earth, undergoing purification in purgatory, or sharing the unclouded light of heaven, every member of the faithful belongs to that single, living network we call the Communion of Saints (CCC 1475).

Holiness is never a self-made monument. Just as the great multitude in Revelation 7 washed their robes white in the Blood of the Lamb, our own partial inheritance is received at the baptismal font and sustained at the Eucharistic table. We live in that sacred tension St. John describes: "We are already God's children, though what we shall be is still unfolding" (1 John 3:2). So how do we walk this path day by day? Jesus hands us the map in the Beatitudes. By following the "Little Way" of daily fidelity—poverty of spirit, purity of heart, and quiet mercy—our ordinary workdays become the workshop of sanctity. Every time we choose forgiveness over resentment or mercy over revenge, another thread of our baptismal garment catches the light of grace. This is why we look to the canonized saints not as distant heroes on pedestals, but as older brothers and sisters at the banquet, cheering us on from the finish line. And every time the priest elevates the host and chalice, the walls of the church open wider than we realize. We are not merely remembering a distant spiritual family; we are stepping through the veil into the heavenly Jerusalem. The altar becomes the throne of the Lamb. When we sing the Sanctus, our voices merge with the uncountable multitude—the Church Triumphant in glory, the Church Suffering being purified in hope, and we, the Church Militant, still walking the dust of this earthly journey and the road to heaven is trodden in the dust of the Master!

Let's become saints in communion with each other.

Grace and Peace

HOLY ROSARY SCHOOL NEWS

"EACH STUDENT MATTERS, EVERY MOMENT COUNTS, CHRIST IN THE CENTER"

FROM THE DESK OF MRS. ANA TURINO

Exciting Things Happening at Holy Rosary Catholic School!

As we wrap up the first quarter of the school year, we are grateful for all the learning, growth, and blessings we have experienced so far! It is hard to believe how quickly the school year is moving along. We are proud of our students and all they have accomplished!

National Vocation Awareness Week begins November 1. This special week reminds us to pray for those who have answered God's call to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life. It is also an opportunity to encourage our students to listen to God's voice and reflect on how He may be calling them to serve others.

Our students are also busy preparing for our Veterans Day Mass and Program on Wednesday, November 11 at 9:45 am.
We look forward to honoring the brave men and women who have served our country. We invite our school families, parishioners, veterans, and community members to join us for this special celebration of gratitude and patriotism.

As we begin the second quarter, we ask God to continue to bless our students, families, teachers, and staff.
Thank you for your prayers and support of Holy Rosary Catholic School!

¡Grandes acontecimientos en la Escuela Católica Holy Rosary!

Al finalizar el primer trimestre del año escolar, damos gracias por todo el aprendizaje, crecimiento y las bendiciones que hemos recibido hasta ahora. ¡Es increíble lo rápido que está pasando el año escolar! Estamos muy orgullosos de nuestros estudiantes y de todo lo que han logrado.

La Semana Nacional de Concientización sobre las Vocaciones comienza el 1 de noviembre. Esta semana especial nos invita a orar por quienes han respondido al llamado de Dios al sacerdocio, al diaconado y a la vida consagrada. También es una oportunidad para animar a nuestros estudiantes a escuchar la voz de Dios y reflexionar sobre cómo Él los llama a servir a los demás.

Nuestros estudiantes también están preparándose con entusiasmo para nuestra Misa y Programa del Día de los Veteranos, que se llevará a cabo el miércoles 11 de noviembre a las 9:45am. Esperamos con alegría esta oportunidad de honrar a los valientes hombres y mujeres que han servido a nuestro país. Invitamos cordialmente a nuestras familias, feligreses, veteranos y miembros de la comunidad a acompañarnos en esta celebración especial de gratitud y patriotismo.

Al comenzar el segundo trimestre, pedimos a Dios que continúe bendiciendo a nuestros estudiantes, familias, maestros y personal escolar. ¡Gracias por sus oraciones y por su continuo apoyo a la Escuela Católica Holy Rosary!

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

"NEWS YOU NEED TO KNOW"

Advent Wreaths

The first week of Advent starts on Sunday, Nov. 29. Advent is a four-week season of waiting, reflection, and spiritual preparation for the coming of Jesus Christ. One way to bring Advent into your home is to have an Advent wreath. What is an Advent Wreath? The Advent wreath is a tradition that symbolizes the passage of the four weeks of Advent. It is an evergreen wreath with four candles. Beginning with the First Sunday of Advent, you light a candle. An additional candle is lit on each subsequent Sunday until, by the last Sunday of Advent, all four candles are lit. To help bring Advent into your home, we are going to purchase 50 Advent wreaths with candles. The cost is $15 for the wreath and candles. You can reserve your Advent wreath with candles by calling the 4-parish office at 715-748-3336 or email Mike at mbub@hrmedford.org.

Boxes of Joy-Return them now!

Thank you to everyone who picked up a shoebox for the Boxes of Joy. If you did not get a "Box of Joy shoebox," you can still help by filling a regular box. Remember to send or include the $9 for shipping in all shoeboxes being returned. The Boxes need to be returned by Wednesday, Nov. 4 to be shipped to the distribution center. Boxes may be returned to any of the 4-parishes where you picked up the box.

Confirmation Mass is scheduled for Sunday, Nov. 8

Confirmation students and sponsors have practice Wednesday, Nov. 4 at 7:15pm, at Holy Rosary. This practice is for ALL Confirmation students from all of our parishes. If the sponsor cannot attend, we ask a parent attends on their behalf. Also, if you do not have a reason to be at the 10:45am Confirmation Mass on Nov. 8, please consider going to another Mass that weekend. We are expecting a very full church as students from Merrill are also being Confirmed here.

4-Parish Volunteer Event.

The 4-Parish Volunteer event will be held on Friday, January 15. Save the date!
On Friday, Nov. 20 at 2:00pm, we will be meeting in the Social Hall at Holy Rosary to start planning the event. If you wish to help select the menu, etc., for the volunteer event, please come to the meeting or call Mike Bub.

Blessing for Halloween

O God,
Bless the friends and families who will gather for the Halloween holiday. Grace us with Your joy as memories are forged, and community bonds are strengthened. Bless our children in their festivities, our neighbors as we visit, and the spaces we'll share together. Help us to shine Your light through the darkness of these autumn nights. Amen.

National Vocation Awareness Week, celebrated November 1-7, 2026, is an annual week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in the United States dedicated to promoting vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to renew our prayers and support for those who are considering one of these particular vocations. NVAW began in 1976 when the U. S. bishops designated the 28th Sunday of the year for NVAW. In 1997, this celebration was moved to coincide with the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, which falls on January 13 in 2013. Beginning in 2014, NVAW was moved to the first full week of November.

Did you know?- All Saints Day

- There are over 3,000 canonized saints!
- All Saints Day remembers those in heaven who aren't officially recognized as well, like your family members who died in a state of Grace.

Book of Remembrance

As we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints on November 1 and the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed (All Souls Day) on November 2, you are invited to add your loved ones' names to the Book of Remembrance that will be available near St. Joseph's altar. The souls will be remembered in all Masses throughout the month of November.

Music Minister Update

Welcome to Lindsey Graff who is now graciously sharing her musical talents regularly at Sacred Heart. We are also thankful to have Cathy Peissig back at the piano after some time away. Still desired are vocalists, especially to accompany Cathy whose voice has not yet fully returned. If you, or someone you know, has been blessed with the gift of singing, you're invited to share it at Mass on a scheduled or drop-in basis. Contact Cathy Peissig for more information: 715-965-4203.
